For Immediate Release

Valley Waters Hires New Chief Administrative Officer (CAO)

(Monday, July 14, Valley Waters, NB) The Village of Valley Waters is delighted to announce that Jeff Landry has joined the Village as Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) effective July 07, 2025. Jeff will be taking over from Angela McLean who will be retiring from the role at the end of July.

Jeff comes to the position with over twenty years of experience working in various senior level roles with both Irving Oil Limited and J.D. Irving Limited. Prior to his time with Irving, he worked in the field of healthcare administration. Jeff has a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of New Brunswick.

A native of Moncton, New Brunswick, Jeff has made Quispamsis his home for the past twenty years. He is married with two young adult children.

Jeff is very much looking forward to rolling up his sleeves and working closely with the Village Mayor and Councillors, as well as getting the opportunity to meet Village of Valley Waters citizens.

“We welcome Jeff aboard and look forward to moving Valley Waters forward leveraging his background and experience”, says Mayor Randy McKnight.
